

CAMGEW Compete in the African Climate Change Market Place in March 2012

CAMGEW was one of the 7 organizations that participated in the African Climate Change Market place organized by Action Foundation (AFCIG) on the 9th of March 2012 at Bamenda City Council Library.

The seven organizations that competed were: SIRDEP, PARED, Better World Cameroon, COMINSUD, ERUDEF, CAMGEW and CSDI. PARED was from Ghana and CSDI from Kenya while the rest of the organization were from Cameroon

The first prize was taken by CSDI and second prize by ERUDEF. This event was sponsored by Common Wealth Foundation through Action Foundation in partnership with SNV and Care International.

This was a forum to get climate change actions on the field and exchange innovative and creative ideas. Participants in the competition presented their climate change action in a market place to the public and team of jury made judgment to get the best 2 for prizes. CAMGEW presented on agroforestry, tree planting, biogas technology and bee farming for better forest management.

Wirsiy Emmanuel presenting on climate change for CAMGEW

